

The Jillson House

Three Jillson Brothers were among the first people to build cotton mills along the Willimantic River. In 1825 William Jillson built a stone house on Main Street. The building is now a museum owned by the Windham Historical Society.

Can you draw the other half of the Jillson house?

